PARENTS NIGHT OUT!

The PTF is planning a parents night out this Friday, January 11th from 6:00 pm-9:00 pm on the lower campus where GRACE parents can drop their students off for a few hours. There will be dinner, a movie in the library, crafts in the art room, and games in the gym. To reserve a spot for your student at this event, click on this event invitation.

WAKE UP AND READ!

We are collecting new and gently used children's books for the WAKE UP AND READ Book Drive from January 10 - February 14 to support WAKE Up and Read (www.wakeupandread.org). GRACE families can make a difference in our community just by donating books.

STOCK THE FREEZER

The PTF Care Team is asking for your help re-stocking the Care Team freezer. The Care Team blesses families with meals in case of births, deaths, or illness. Additional details are available on the Freezer Meal Sign Up page.

ACTION FIGURES NEEDED

The upper campus photography classes will be working on an assignment to tell stories through photographs. For this assignment, we will need a variety of action figures (Marvel, Disney characters, etc) and dollhouse furniture. If you have any that you are looking to give to a new home, we would love to have them for our class. If you have questions or would like to make a donation, please contact Wendy Warlick at wwarlick@gracechristian.net.

NEW TO GRACE? WHAT IS PLAY 4 KAY ANYWAY?

Uniting players, coaches, and fans to do something for the greater good that far exceeds wins and losses on the court, the Play4Kay initiative is the largest fundraiser of the Kay Yow Cancer Fund and plays a major role in their success.

The “pink phenomenon” in women’s basketball began during the 2004-2005 basketball season, when Coach Yow’s cancer recurred after being in remission for 17 years. Play4Kay is the grassroots fundraising initiative of the Kay Yow Cancer Fund. It was originally called Think Pink, later Pink Zone, and most recently and finally, Play4Kay. Women’s basketball teams wore pink in honor of Coach Yow and those battling cancer. In 2007, this movement resulted in the establishment of the Kay Yow Cancer Fund and its Play4Kay initiative.

For the past nine years, numerous sports, groups, and organizations have hosted Play4Kay fundraisers that resonated with their fans and the community, all while raising funds for the Kay Yow Cancer Fund. Play4Kay events allow members of the basketball community to play a part in the Kay Yow Cancer Fund simply by doing something they love, playing ball. Coach Yow wouldn’t have it any other way.

GRACE Christian School has been part of the Play4Kay program since it’s inception, using the name “Hoops 4 Hope” for many years and it has become a tradition at our school. Representatives of the Kay Yow Cancer Fund use GRACE as a model for how high schools can become a part of this initiative. If you have never been to a Play4Kay event at GRACE, plan to attend on January 25th and see the GRACE community doing what it does best: loving others well and serving those around us.

Every minute, one woman is diagnosed with cancer. One mother. One daughter. One wife. Help us raise money in support of scientific research and programs that serve the underserved by support this year’s Play4Kay event. Tickets for everyone (note: no Eagles Club Passes are accepted for this game) are $10.
